Regulate the Summoning of Grand Juries in the Court of A.D. 1873.
Queen's Bench in Ireland.

WHEREAS inconvenience has been found to exist by reason of the unnecessary summoning of grand juries to attend each term in the Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be necessary for the sheriff of the county of Dublin, or the sheriff of the county of the city of Dublin, to summon a grand jury of the county of Dublin, or a grand jury of the county of the city of Dublin, to attend the Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin unless notice shall be given by the master of the Crown Office in Ireland to the said sheriff of the county of Dublin, or the said sheriff of the county of the city of Dublin, as the case may be, that there is some business intended to be brought before a grand jury of the county of Dublin, or a grand jury of the county of the city of Dublin, as the case may be, and on receiving such notice it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county of Dublin, or of the sheriff of the county of the city of Dublin, as the case may be, to summon a grand jury of the county of Dublin, or of the county of the city of Dublin, as the case may be, to attend the said Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Grand juries need not be summoned to the Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin unless the sheriffs receive notice to summon the same.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be held to apply to the grand jury of the county of Dublin now summoned to attend the Presenting Term for the county of Dublin; but notwithstanding anything herein contained the sheriff of the county of Dublin shall summon a grand jury of the county of Dublin to attend at the Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin on the first day of the Presenting Term for the county of Dublin as has been heretofore accustomed.

Not to apply to the grand jury that is summoned for the Presenting Term for the county of Dublin.
